Case No. 2:21-cv-02074-CDS-NJK

5 Plaintiff

Order Directing Parties to File a
Proposed Joint Pretrial Order

6 v.

7 Lezlie Gunn,

8 Defendant

10 On November 15, 2023, I issued a minute order directing defendant Lezlie Gunn to file a 11 brief that complied with “the court’s narrow order requiring supplemental briefing on the issues 12 identified during the August 11, 2023 hearing.” See Min. order, ECF No. 95. On the same day, 13 Gunn filed a document titled “notice of compliance.” Notice, ECF No. 96. Therein, Gunn asserts 14 that the previously filed brief (ECF No. 87) addressed the issues identified by the court for 15 supplemental briefing, so no additional supplemental briefing was filed. Id. The issue of damages 16 remains outstanding. Having reviewed the briefing, the court will set this matter for trial on the 17 question of damages. The parties are hereby ordered to meet and confer and file a proposed joint 18 pretrial order that complies with Local Rules 16-3 and 16-4 by June 30, 2025.<sup>1</sup>
